

Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) and Emergency Solutions Grants (ESG) Funded, Public Services Agencies

City of Houston Housing and Community Development

The City of Houston's Public Services Program offers several types of programs for Low and Moderate Income Individuals and families. The agencies listed below receive CDBG and ESG funds to provide a variety of Public Services Programs.

Scan the list below to find an agency that provides the particular service that you need.

Capital IDEA - Houston, Inc. Provides a workforce development program designed to lift low and moderate income working families out of poverty by sponsoring a community college education in high-paying, in-demand professional careers. 832-280-5343	Child Care Council of Greater Houston Administers the City of Houston's Child Care Program, Juvenile Delinquency Prevention Program, and Emergency Solutions Grants Program. The Child Care Program provides child care services to low and moderate income families. The Juvenile Delinquency Prevention Program provides activities for at risk youth. The Emergency Solutions Grants Program assists in the prevention of homelessness and assists with the needs of the homeless in the community. These youth and ESG services are provided by 38 agencies throughout the city of Houston. For information about these programs, contact Child Care Council of Greater Houston at 713-266-6045
Chronic Disease Prevention Administered by the Houston Department of Health and Human Services. The program is designed to maximize prevention, offer sustained intervention, and coordinate care of those with diabetes and other chronic disease conditions. 832-393-5169	The Coalition for the Homeless Houston/Harris County Provides information and referral services to homeless persons, provides strategic planning to end homelessness in Houston/Harris County, and maintains a data base of all homeless services providers and activities in Houston/Harris County. 713-739-7514
Community Based Mental Health Services Administered by the Houston Department of Health and Human Services. The program will provide mental health services to children/youth diagnosed with mental illness, and those at-risk for mental illness and their families. 832-393-5169	Educational Programs Inspiring Communities, Inc. Provides a job training program for developmentally disabled adults. 713-782-5606
Elderly Services Program Administered by the Houston Department of Health and Human Services. The program provides meals and transportation services to low and moderate income seniors throughout Houston. 832-393-5169	Goodwill Industries of Houston Provides job training and employment services for individuals with physical, mental, and developmental disabilities. 832-431-4471
Healthcare for the Homeless Houston Provides transportation services to homeless individuals and families seeking healthcare and services. The program is designed to: Increase access to health and social services by providing free transportation services; increase awareness of homeless passengers regarding publicly and privately funded homeless resources; and provide coordination of care provided for homeless persons in the Houston Community. 713-276-3073	HIV/STD Education Program Administered by the Houston Department of Health and Human Services. The program provides HIV/AIDS prevention education to at risk youth throughout Houston. 832-393-5169

Mayor's Afterschool Achievement Program Expands afterschool opportunities for Houston youths. Administered by the Houston Parks and Recreation department, schools and non-profit agencies provide after school programming for elementary and middle school age youth. 832-395-7000	Mobile Computer Laboratory Administered by the Houston Public Library. The program is designed to increase access to literacy and technology training in low and moderate income areas. 832-393-1300
Re-Entry Program Administered by the Houston Department of Health and Human Services. The program is designed to increase access to services that will facilitate the successful re-entry of recently released individuals into the community. 832-393-5169	SEARCH Homeless Services Provides a Mobile Outreach and Resource Center for homeless persons. The program responds to difficult homeless situations, provides aggressive street outreach, essential services such as food, shelter, and linkages to homeless service providers. 713-739-7752
The Village Learning Center, Inc. Provides services for developmentally and physically disabled adults in the Kingwood area. Services include supported employment, transportation, day habilitation and transition, afterschool child care, and medical services. 281- 358-6172	Youth Enrichment Program Administered by the Houston Parks and Recreation Department. Educational and Recreational programs are held at approximately 41 sites from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. during the summer and in the afternoon from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. during the school year. 832-395-7000
Buckner Children and Family Provides supportive housing and supportive services to families who are low-to moderate-income, which qualifies them for residence in New Hope Housing at Reed Road. 346-226-7810

Social Service Agencies receiving CDBG funding must serve a majority of persons in households earning below 80% of the area median income. The population served with ESG funds is individuals and families that are homeless, formally homeless, or at risk of becoming homeless.

Please check with the service provider for additional eligibility requirements, restrictions and limitations.

If you have any questions please contact: Melody Barr at 713-868-8329